About Fleming's

Welcome to Fleming's Gourmet Butchers & Fine Food Store.

Founded in 2006, Fleming's is a proudly family-run business with shops in the heart of Stepaside, Kilmacud, Monkstown, and Mount Merrion — supported by a growing online store, catering service, and wholesale operation.

From the very beginning, our focus has been on exceptional quality, personal service, and animal welfare, with a deep and growing commitment to sustainability. We take pride in sourcing only the finest, fully traceable Irish-farmed meats, complemented by a carefully curated range of Irish and international artisan foods.

Over the years, Fleming's has continued to grow and evolve, adapting to our customers' changing needs while staying true to the values of traditional craft butchery. Our mission is simple — to deliver the highest standards of quality and care, whether you're visiting one of our shops, ordering online, or working with our catering and wholesale team.

Owner Michael Fleming remains deeply passionate about maintaining the personal connection between Ireland's home cooks and their local butcher — ensuring there's always a familiar face behind the counter, ready to offer advice, share expertise, and provide food you can trust.

Christmas Hams

With a traditional mild cure, our Dry Cured Hams are a festive favourite. Simple to cook and easy to carve, they make the perfect match for your Christmas bird. Our outdoor reared Boneless Dry Cure Hams are traditional hand cured from pigs reared on Crowe's family farm. The hams are cured for 14 days before being hand-tied in keeping with our traditional methods. These hams are perfect for baking in the oven.

A plump, golden turkey is the star of every Christmas feast — and it deserves the very best care and consideration.

At Fleming's, we choose to work only with exceptional free-range breeds so you can be sure of the most flavourful and succulent results on your big day.

Exquisitely outdoor-reared on the Salter family farm in Kilkea, Co. Carlow, these traditional bronze turkeys are raised slowly on open pastures, free to roam and forage in the fresh country air. Their natural lifestyle and steady growth produce meat of outstanding quality — rich in flavour, tender, and beautifully moist.

Each bird is hand-finished and prepared on the farm to the highest standards of quality and freshness, with full traceability from farm to fork. A true Irish free-range turkey — and the perfect centrepiece for a memorable Christmas dinner.

A close-up, high-quality photograph of a whole roasted chicken. The chicken is golden-brown and glistening, with fresh rosemary sprigs tucked into its cavity and scattered on its skin. In the foreground, a large, rustic knife with a dark, textured handle lies diagonally across the frame. To the right of the knife, a slice of lemon is visible. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting a wooden surface or a rustic setting. The overall lighting is warm and focused on the chicken, creating a sense of warmth and culinary expertise.
